Re: NOTICE OF AMENDED FINAL JUDGMENT AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION

On behalf of DISH Network Corporation, DISH Network L.L.C. (collectively "DISH Network"), EchoStar Corporation, and EchoStar Technologies L.L.C. (collectively "EchoStar"), we write to provide you notice of the Amended Final Judgment and Permanent Injunction, dated September 8, 2006, that was entered by the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Marshall Division, in the case entitled TiVo Inc. v. EchoStar Communications Corp., et al. (the "Amended Final Judgment and Permanent Injunction"). A copy is attached for your reference and compliance.

Pursuant to the Amended Final Judgment and Permanent Injunction, DISH Network and EchoStar are permanently enjoined from making, using, offering to sell, selling, or importing in the United States, the following products: DP-501, DP-508, DP-510, DP-522, DP-625, DP-721, DP-921 and DP-942 (the "Infringing Products"), either alone or in combination with any other product, and all other products that are only colorably different therefrom in the context of certain claims of TiVo's '389 patent (the "Infringed Claims"), whether individually or in combination with other products or as part of another product, and from otherwise infringing or inducing others to infringe the Infringed Claims. In addition, DISH Network and EchoStar were ordered to disable the DVR functionality in all but approximately 192,000 of the Infringing Products in the field within thirty days of the issuance of the injunction order.

While the injunction order had been stayed pending appeal, that stay ends on April 18, 2008 and the Amended Final Judgment and Permanent Injunction is now in full force and effect. In anticipation of this potential result, DISH Network and EchoStar redesigned their DVR functionality so that it would not infringe the '389 patent and have downloaded the redesigned software to all of their DVRs in the field not otherwise covered by the approximately 192,000 set top boxes exempted from the injunction order.

Because DISH Network and EchoStar have taken steps to modify their DVR products so that they are not covered by the Infringed Claims, we believe that no further action is necessary on your part at this time. Should you have any information or questions regarding compliance with the Amended Final Judgment and Permanent Injunction, please email vendoringquiries@echostar.com.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

AMENDED FINAL JUDGMENT AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION

Pursuant to Rule 58 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and in accordance with the jury verdict delivered on April 13, 2006 and with the Court’s contemporaneously filed orders, the Court thereby enters judgment for Plaintiff against Defendants for willful infringement of U.S. Patent No. 6,233,389 (“389 patent”), claims 1, 5, 21, 23, 32, 36, 52, 31 and 61 (“the Infringed Claims”) by Defendants’ following DVR receivers (collectively the “Infringing Products”): DP-501; DP-508; DP-510; DP-522; DP-625; DP-721; DP-921; and the DP-942. The jury in this case found EchoStar’s infringement to be willful, but the Court, finding that Echostar did not act in bad faith and that this is not an “exceptional case,” has determined that there should be no enhancement of damages and no award of attorneys fees pursuant to 35 U.S.C. Sections 284 and 285. The Court also enters judgment for Plaintiff on Defendants’ counterclaims for declaratory judgment of non-infringement, invalidity, and unenforceability.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT Plaintiff shall have and recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, the total sum of $73,991,964.00, together with prejudgment interest at the rate of prime, said prejudgment interest in the total sum of $5,367,544.00<sup>1</sup>, together with supplemental damages in the amount of $10,317,108.00, together with post-judgment interest on the entire sum calculated pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961. The amounts awarded in this judgment shall bear interest from the date of judgment at the lawful federal rate.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT

Each Defendant, its officers, agents, servants, employees and attorneys, and those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice hereof, are hereby restrained and enjoined, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283 and Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(d), from making, using, offering to sell, selling, or importing in the United States, the Infringing Products, either alone or in combination with any other product and all other products that are only colorably different therefrom in the context of the Infringed Claims, whether individually or in combination with other products or as a part of another product, and from otherwise infringing or inducing others to infringe the Infringed Claims of the '389 patent.

Defendants are hereby FURTHER ORDERED to, within thirty (30) days of the issuance of this order, disable the DVR functionality (i.e., disable all storage to and playback from a hard disk drive of television data) in all but 192,708 units of the Infringing Products that have been placed with an end user or subscriber. The DVR functionality, i.e., disable all storage to and playback from a hard disk drive of television data) shall not be enabled in any new placements of the Infringing Products.

Defendants shall forthwith provide written notice of this judgment, and the injunction ordered herein, to: their officers, directors, agents, servants, representatives, attorneys, employees, subsidiaries and affiliates, and those persons in active concert or participation with them, including any and all manufacturers, distributors, retailers, and service providers who have been involved in the making, using, selling, offering for sale or importing of any Infringing Products; and to all other persons or entities involved in any way with the making, using, selling, offering for sale or importing of any Infringing Products. Defendants shall take whatever means are necessary or appropriate to ensure that this order is properly complied with.

<sup>1</sup> The prejudgment interest and supplemental damages award herein do not cover the time period from August 1, 2006 to the date of entry of this Order. Consistent with the contemporaneously filed order addressing prejudgment interest and supplemental damages, the Court will award additional prejudgment interest and supplemental damages after receipt of additional information from Plaintiff's damages expert.

This injunction shall run until the expiration of the '389 patent.

This Court retains jurisdiction over Defendants to enforce any and all aspects of this Judgment and Permanent Injunction.

The Court further retains jurisdiction to award Plaintiff amounts for supplemental damages, interest, costs, attorneys fees and such other or further relief as may be just and proper.

All relief not specifically granted herein is denied. All pending motions not previously ruled on are denied. This is a Final Judgment and is appealable.

SIGNED this 8th day of September, 2006.
